Friends in Christ:

Thank you so much for your generous gift of $10,000.00 to Trinity Lutheran Seminary at Capital University.

It has been a joy this past year to witness the impact of gifts from donors like you. I have watched prospective students' eyes widen and mouths drop as they hear that donor gifts will fund their tuition to Trinity. So many of them describe their experience of being drawn to Trinity with phrases like "God's timing" and "Holy Spirit-driven." Gifts from donors like you directly impact our experience of God in our lives, whether that gift is towards tuition, buildings, faculty and staff, events, and beyond. This kind of faith-filled connection between strangers is a beautiful representation of the Body of Christ. Thank you for being in community with us in this way.

Trinity and its predecessor seminaries have been providing theological education in Ohio since 1830. Both Trinity and the wider world have changed since our inaugural year of "forming leaders for Christ's Church at work in the world." What remains the same is Trinity's commitment to an excellent seminary education where theological reflection and practical skills combine to equip our students for faithful and effective ministry in the contexts of today's changing world.

The Bible is full of stories of charity, gratitude, and the community and ministry that are made possible through gifts like yours. Like Paul, we thank God for you. Like Ruth, we humbly accept your help. And with you, we celebrate Jesus' call to abundant life that is offered to us all. Thank you for your support of God's mission here at Trinity Lutheran Seminary at Capital University

Gratefully,

Rachel F. Wrenn

A Big Thank you to Prince of Peace!

Thank you on behalf of all the children at the OMNI School in Zambia for your support and hosting of the Bluz Concert to benefit our school. A special thank you goes to Jon Wilhelm and all of the volunteers, donors and child sponsors that made that evening such a success!

Without your generous donations, OMNI would be unable to continue providing a quality education, school supplies, a daily hot meal, uniforms and shoes, clean drinking water, anti-malaria nets for sleeping, medical care, and a Christian atmosphere of learning. We are grateful and thank you so much!

In addition, the need for a truck at the OMNI School in Zambia, Africa was beyond critical. The school has been without a vehicle for over two years. The Rotaries of Northeast Ohio stepped up to raise nearly $30,000 in the past year to help meet this need. That funding was a cornerstone to get the purchase off the ground.

Prince of Peace deserves a big applause of appreciation for generously supporting the project with $7,500. My understanding is that these funds were generated over the past few years from a portion of contributions from your members who supported the coffee stand in the narthex of your weekly services. What a wonderful ministry!

The support that you have given over the years through donations and child support is a blessing to our children in Zambia!

In His service,

Karen Throckmorton, RN

OMNI President

Happy Thanksgiving

POP Siblings in Christ,

As we approach Thanksgiving, on the day before (November 25), the wider church remembers and celebrates the impact of Isaac Watts, one of the most influential hymn writers who is responsible for 10 hymns in our red Evangelical Lutheran Worship hymnal. Although his earthly ministry drew to a close on that late November day in 1748, his words still connect nearly three centuries later. For instance, there's something about "O God, Our Help in Ages Past", especially for the fall holiday that so many of us have come to cherish:

O God, our help in ages past,
our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast,
and our eternal home.

Thanksgiving sets off this holy interaction between giving thanks for ages past while also giving thanks for years still to come. We give thanks for good memories of turkey preparing, football watching, and family enjoying. I give thanks for the memory of my grandfather sitting at the head of a long table leading us in prayer as we each sat in a specific chair where our names had been placed in front of our plates. Sometimes we wish for just one more opportunity to dine and laugh with family from the past. But we also give thanks for the youngest, especially our new grandson, Milo, born on November 3, who gives us hope for years to come. We have much to be thankful for.

There's also something about the past with this hymn, written by Watts during a time of fear and uncertainty for his homeland of England, including with the church, adding further meaning and power to the words, "shelter from the stormy blast." Having weathered the storm of November elections, it is reassuring that God has always provided shelter from the "stormy blast".

So while we give thanks for our "eternal home", we also give thanks that we can feel and experience a bit of God's home in Jesus Christ right here and now too. There's nothing quite like the birth of a grandson or the birth of our Savior on Christmas to remind us to give thanks.

From all of us at Prince of Peace, we wish you a wonderful Thanksgiving!

In Christ,

Pastor Doug
