Aging Alone ~ Handling Grief

Wednesday, August 7, 2019 at 10:00 am

Westlake Senior and Community Services Center
29694 Center Ridge Road in Westlake

Our community has experienced a handful of significant losses over the past few months. Coping with the death of a loved one, a friend, a pet or even physical losses associated with aging can be a big struggle.

There are ways to help you handle your grief and restore hope. Bob Piovarchy of the Far West Center will lead this important discussion.

Please RSVP by August 5th at 440-899-3544.

Summer Sunday Music Offering

It is our practice in the summer to welcome worship music offerings by members of Prince of Peace. Instrumentalists and vocalists are welcome to sign up on the chart in the lower lobby for an open date. If you have questions, please contact Cindy Streiter or Don Jackson.

Call Committee Update

The Synod is actively reviewing candidates whose interests align with ours. Once 3 candidates have been identified, their information will be forwarded to the Call Committee for review and possible next steps. We will keep the congregation updated when this occurs! Thank you!

Women's Re-Entry Network

We are in need of toiletries, umbrellas, costume jewelry and underwear. Items can be dropped off at the donation station. ?'s please contact Jan Filkill 440/871-6673.

"Member Profile"

This week's feature: Julia Castell

Julia Castell joined Prince of Peace Lutheran Church in May of this year. She was born and raised in Columbus, Indiana, a farm and blue-collar community on route 65, 35 miles south of Indianapolis. It is mostly a Lutheran community and Julia attended St. Peters Lutheran School as a youngster. She then attended Columbus Indiana High School. Julia's family consisted of two brothers and two sisters.

Julia got married when she was 19. Julia was a stay at home mom for a while, raising three children. Her oldest daughter was an Army Nurse. She is now a Surgical Nurse living in South Bend, Indiana. She is married and has two children, of which, one will be getting her PhD next summer. Julia's son lives in the Cleveland area with his wife, who is from Thailand, and their son, who recently graduated from Westlake High School. He is retired Air Force with three tours in Iran as a Logistics Specialist. By the way, Julia had a hand in her son being awarded a Bronze Star. She had the idea about sending toys, with a lot of help and support from her South Bend Congregation at the time, to her son.
