

“Member Profile”

This week's feature: Jeff and Donna Buhrman

Well, Jeff and Donna Buhrman are leaving Prince of Peace Lutheran Church. And, they have been members for over 35 years. But, they are leaving for a wonderful reason. They have been planning this move to a new home in Fremont, Ohio for some time. By the time you read this profile, Donna will have already retired on January 2, 2019. Jeff has already been living in the new home getting things ready. They decided to move to Fremont because it is an even distance from their son and his family who live in Wauseon, Ohio and their two children who live in North Ridgeville. Their oldest son, Jason, lives in Yuma, Arizona.

The four kids are now grown, and as they grew up, Jeff and Donna became more involved in POP. Donna was involved in Mons and Tots, Altar Guild, and she was co-chair of the fellowship group for several years. She also helped out with Vacation Bible School, Jeff was on the church council and involved in several community organizations. Donna worked for Sears for 23 years and already has her next task planned. Both Donna and Jeff will be helping with the grand kids in Wauseon for a time. Lindsey and her husband, Jason, just had a two month premature baby, Franklin. So Jeff and Donna will be helping out once Franklin comes home in February.

They are also planning to do some traveling out to Arizona in the future as well. They will love the warm, sunny southwest. I told Donna that Jeff probably doesn't even remember that he was one of the first people to come up and greet and welcome me when I was new at church. That has always meant a lot to me. May God bless Jeff and Donna and their whole family in this new venture in their lives.
